Where: Best Western Premier The Central Hotel & Conference Center - 800 E Park Dr, Harrisburg, PA 17111

Time: Registration 7:20am - 8:00am
Sessions start at 8:00am

Cost: $30/person (Includes 3 hours of parent focused professional development)

Agenda:

8:00 AM- Supporting the Social-Emotional Needs of Advanced Learners: Parents often wonder how best to meet the social and emotional needs of their gifted children. In this session, Dr. Michelle Muratori, a Senior Counselor with the Julian C. Stanley Study of Exceptional Talent (SET) at the Johns Hopkins Center for Talented Youth (CTY) discusses the myths and challenges that many advanced/gifted learners commonly encounter. She will share helpful strategies that parents can use to address these challenges.

9:00 AM- My Child is Gifted, Now What?: Join parent and educator, Christine Laquidara-Kolvek, for a discussion on the different aspects of parenting your gifted child/children. Topics will include parenting your gifted child differently, asynchronous development, how to identify and manage social and emotional needs, educating yourself in order to be a positive and informed advocate for your child, and resources.

10:00 AM- Promoting Success in Gifted and Talented Students: Dr. Michelle Muratori, a Senior Counselor with the Julian C. Stanley Study of Exceptional Talent (SET) at the Johns Hopkins Center for Talented Youth (CTY) describes barriers which can prevent success for advanced learners. She will share her insights as a counselor and researcher on how school counselors, teachers, administrators, and parents can support and nurture these students' growth and help them to thrive.
