

20/20 VISION: GIFTED THROUGH MANY LENSES

NOVEMBER 14TH & 15TH, JOIN FROM ANYWHERE!

WWW.GIFTEDPAGE.ORG/CONFERENCE/2020-PAGE-CONFERENCE/

- Keynote: Why Enrichment & Gifted Programs Make a Difference in Students' Lives by Sally Reis, PhD
  - Keynote: Bright Not Broken: Addressing the Psychological and Learning Differences Associated with Giftedness by Rebecca Banks Cull & Diane M. Kennedy
  - You Don't Look Like Amy or Sheldon: Portrayals of the Gifted in Pop Culture by Charlton Wolfgang, PhD
  - Award Recognition & Membership Meeting
  - You Can't Pour from an Empty Glass: Practical Self-Care for the Caregivers of Gifted Kids by Julia Hodgson, PsyD, MEd
  - The Great Balancing Act: Compliance vs. Enrichment, Acceleration, and other Best Practice during Pandemic by Jonathan Klingeman
  - Philosophy: The Perfect Subject for Gifted Minds by Marcia Gregorio
  - Discovering Gifted Abilities of Students from Diverse Backgrounds by Monica Vanscoy
  - Thriving in the Face of Adversity: Using a Trauma Informed Lens to Guide our Youth by Sara Newman, LCSW
  - "Aren't They Gifted?": Gifted Educators' Understanding of Academic Underachievement by Bryan Gottlieb, Psy.D.
  - Wired from Birth 3.0: Technology and the Gifted Mind by Jill Williford Wurman
  - Spatial is Special: How Spatial Skills Impact STEM Learning by Colleen Epler-Ruths, PhD
  - Informative sessions each day by Johns Hopkins Center for Talented Youth
- 30 minutes will be given for lunch each day

Don't forget! Your registration also includes 5 months worth of live multisession webinar events to be held the first Sunday of each month (Dec-Apr)!

